

PEEC Statement

Pronounced “peace” statement – PEEC is an excellent way to talk about your work while hopefully being interesting, memorable, and referable. PEEC helps you articulate what you do while making a friendly request – even to those you meet for the first time! Many might refer to this statement or strategy as an elevator pitch. I prefer to think of PEEC as a positioning statement – perhaps a great way to “position” you as a resource. Best used at networking events, conferences, sales meetings, and even social gatherings. Use it just before delivering a speech. Practice your PEEC Statement with your target market, prospects, clients, family, friends, and associates. You just might get a referral!

Profession – Who, what, and for whom?

Expertise – What you know!

Environments – Your Target Market!

Call to Action – What you want...specifically!

Be asked. Be brief. Be specific. Have an AIR about you. Maintain your brand. Only one per customer. It's a WE thing! Find your own voice. No selling.
